

Honorary Proclamation

BILL RITTER, JR.
GOVERNOR

LANDSCAPE ARCHITECTURE MONTH

April 2009

WHEREAS, by integrating site analysis, design, master planning and technical skill, landscape architects are dedicated facilitators that help lead the way toward the creation of beautiful, useful, safe, and environmentally sound communities; and

WHEREAS, through thoughtful planning and design, and careful stewardship of our state's land and water resources, landscape architects preserve, protect, and conserve Colorado's scenic beauty, unique and fragile ecosystems, and abundant natural resources; and

WHEREAS, landscape architects are responsible for creating public parks, public squares and thoroughfares, site planning for residential and commercial spaces, redeveloping blighted areas, revitalizing towns, and enhancing historic preservation; and

WHEREAS, during Landscape Architecture Month, the American Society of Landscape Architects and it's Colorado chapter will join with communities across America to undertake projects relative to promote landscape architecture in classrooms and our communities; and

WHEREAS, the State of Colorado recognizes landscape architects for their valuable contributions to improve our state and nation, and for their time spent serving the community;

Therefore, I, Bill Ritter, Jr., Governor of the State of Colorado, do hereby proclaim April 2009,

in the State of Colorado.

GIVEN under my hand and the Executive Seal of the State of Colorado, this twenty-seventh day of March, 2009
