

Proclamation

WHEREAS, dedicating their effort to the health, safety, and welfare of all people through the planning and design of public realm and civic spaces, Landscape Architects serve the greater good of all citizens; and

WHEREAS, Landscape Architects through thoughtful planning and design, and careful stewardship of our State's land and water resources, serve to preserve, protect and conserve Colorado's scenic beauty, unique and fragile ecosystems and abundant natural resources; and

WHEREAS, the activities of Landscape Architects include creating public parks, public squares and urban districts, site planning residential and commercial spaces, redeveloping blighted areas, revitalizing towns and enhancing historic preservation in order to create a better Colorado; and

WHEREAS, the American Society of Landscape Architects and the Colorado Chapter of the American Landscape Architects have joined together across the country to sponsor National Landscape Architecture Month during which they will, while enlisting community support, undertake projects relative to Landscape Architecture in the categories of education, community and recognition; and

WHEREAS, Landscape Architects, both in the public and private sector, help shape development in Colorado; and

WHEREAS, Coloradans are encouraged to celebrate the commitment of Landscape Architects to our state and community wellbeing,

Therefore, I, John W. Hickenlooper, Governor of the State of Colorado, do hereby proclaim, April as in the State of Colorado.

LANDSCAPE ARCHITECTURE MONTH

GIVEN under my hand and the Executive Seal of the State of Colorado, this first day of April, 2018
